New Xulon Fiction Encourages That God Will NEVER Walk Away Collins pens story proving God's love will outlast one's resistance and rebellion

MAITLAND, FL— Within the pages of Deborah Collins' new book, Beauty and the Presence, ($12.99, paperback, 9781498450041; $6.99, e-book, 9781498453738) readers will discover that beauty beckons the little girl in every woman to trust and seek her Heavenly Father and know that she is not only deeply loved but that she is destined for greatness. In this self-help, get ahead, do-it-yourself world, this book unfolds the peace and power of total surrender to the Eternal Presence who pursues each person relentlessly. The worst decisions made in life aren't bad enough for God to walk away. No matter how far one pushes Him away, He will not leave nor forsake any of His followers.

"God places dreams and desires in our hearts then gives us a vivid imagination to help make them come true," states the author. "As we grow into adulthood, dreams can quickly fade away but the desires remain. The harsh reality of life then opens the door for disappointment and heartache to creep in and lead us down a path of lies and deception. No matter how far we stray from God, He's always there, waiting to save us, be our Hero, and make our dreams come true."
